Hello to everyone,

The amigurumi pattern I shared today is one of Marvel's most beloved characters, the Baby Groot toy. I love the free pattern. When you complete the Baby Groot amigurumi pattern, it will be very small in size. You can use the amigurumi pattern as a key chain. This beautiful amigurumi pattern can be an amigurumi keychain gift idea for your loved ones. The doll amigurumi groot is a really cute character. It was a really good idea to turn this doll into a crochet keychain. Now let's work with crochet step by step.

To make the Baby Groot amigurumi toy, we start with the arms. The sleeves of the free amigurumi pattern are small, it can be a little overwhelming. Continue to work with crochet patiently. After completing the arms, the body and legs are crocheted together. We start the head part of the Baby Groot amigurumi free pattern after the body is completed. The Baby Groot amigurumi toy should look like a tree man. Head part is very important for this. I recommend that you do it slowly and carefully while making the details that you will give while making the head part. When you complete the free pattern, your favorite character will be with you. Don't forget to add the Baby Groot amigurumi pattern to your favorite list.
